

JOB POSITION

Intitulé du poste	1 or 2 EU FP7 Cooperation Project CASCADE
Type of contract	Fixed-term contract –9 months for one researcher, 4.5 months per researcher if two researchers are recruited
Location	Fondation maison des sciences de l'homme - 190 avenue de France - Paris 13 ^{ème}
Department	Scientific programmes
Position
	The researcher will be required to conduct research and prepare deliverables of the EU FP7 CASCADE project in cooperation with CASCADE scientific coordinator and FMSH departments: http://www.cascade-caucasus.eu/
Requirements	To be eligible, the candidate has to be a national of one of the European Union countries or have a valid French work permit (visa)
Key tasks	Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Conduct research (desk research and possibly fieldwork) on Topic 1) trade-related integration processes in and around the Caucasus (Eurasian Economic Union and DCFTAs and their implications for Armenia and Georgia, Topic 2) security-related cooperation and integration in the post-Soviet space (CSTO, NATO etc) - Contribute to writing up the corresponding deliverables under the EU FP7 CASCADE project. Communication <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Facilitate communication with the CASCADE consortium on these research topics, - Contribute to disseminating the results of CASCADE, more specifically the publications related to the above topics
Qualifications
General qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Experience in conducting academic research and fieldwork in the post-Soviet context

Specific qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - In-depth knowledge of integration processes in the post-Soviet space, especially in and around the Caucasus - In-depth knowledge of trade integration processes (Eurasian Economic Union, DCFTA) for topic 1, - In-depth knowledge of security organisations (CSTO, cooperation with NATO...) for topic 2 -
Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Excellent organisational skills - Diplomatic skills - Responsiveness and ability to perform different tasks - Accuracy, reliability and ability to meet deadlines - Ability to take initiatives and independent actions
Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fluency in English and Russian (both written and spoken) - Fluency in French is an asset
Diplomas	Master or PhD in IR, political science, sociology or economy
Additional information
Starting date	April 2016
Requirements	To be eligible, the candidate has to be a national of one of the European Union countries or have a valid French work permit (visa)
Job constraints	Travels may be required Willingness to work with flexible hours and when necessary (reporting, key project events) on irregular hours.
Work environment	Created in 1963, the Fondation Maison des sciences de l'homme embodies a unique place of freedom for research in the human and social sciences in France. It generates exchanges and cooperation between researchers from all countries through its geographic programmes and through its mobility fellowship programmes
Contact person
Name :	Laure DELCOUR
Email :	Recrutement-ds@msh-paris.fr

Applicants should submit their application in French or English, containing a cover letter and CV (including the full list of publications) before 29 February 2016. Applications should be sent to Recrutement-ds@msh-paris.fr clearly indicating the research topic that the applicant will cover. The selection procedure will take place in March 2016.